Dear Mr. Dulles:

I was delighted to read that you have accepted President-elect Kennedy's invitation to continue as Director of the Central Intelligence Agency, and thus preserve your great experience and prestige for the public service.

We sincerely appreciate your support of the National Civil Service League's Career Service Awards Program. We received the two excellent nominations from the Central Intelligence Agency, and our Board of Judges will soon be reviewing the nominations.

We shall look forward with anticipation to seeing you again at our Career Service Awards banquet on March 21.

Sincerely,

James R. Watson
